Theme	2:14-38	3:12-26	4:8-22	5:29-33	7:8-53	9:20-30	10:34-43	13:16-41	17:1-3	26:1-23
Jesus Fulfills Scriptures	Joel and David cited	God fulfilled what He foretold	Jesus is the rejected capstone	The God of our fathers	Slain prophets foretold His coming	Proving Jesus is the Christ	Ordained by God, prophets witnessed that He would provide forgiveness	God's promise to the fathers fulfilled in Jesus	For three Sabbath days he reasoned from the scripture	Proclaim what prophets and Moses prophesied
Person	God has made this Jesus both Lord and Messiah	The Author of life	Jesus Christ	Prince (Leader) and Savior	A Prophet Like Moses	Jesus is the son of God, Jesus is the Christ	Lord of all, Jesus of Nazareth	A Savior, Jesus	This Jesus is the Messiah	Messiah (Christ)
His Life	Jesus a man attested by God	The Holy and Righteous One	Salvation found in His name (character)		The Just One		Doing good, God was with Him	No cause for his death	Christ had to suffer
Death	You put him to death	You killed the Author of Life	Whom God has raised from the dead	Whom you killed by hanging on a tree	You betrayed and murdered Him		They hanged Him on a tree	Had Pilate put him to death	Rise from the dead	Must suffer and die
Resurrection	But God raised him from the dead	God raised up His servant		God raised Jesus from the dead	(implied)		God raised Him from the dead	God raised him from the dead		First to rise from the dead
Ascension	Exalted to the right hand of God	He must remain in heaven		God exalted Him to His own right hand	Jesus standing at the right hand of God	Paul had seen Jesus	Judge of the living and the dead	He justifies those who believe		I heard Jesus
Return	At my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool	Until the time comes for God to restore everything			Stephen fell asleep (resurrection implied)		Judge of the living and the dead	He is doing a work in the last days
Witness or Testify	We are all witnesses of this fact	We are witnesses of this	What we have seen and heard	We are witnesses of these things	Stephen's defense	Paul spoke boldly	We are His witnesses	They are now witnesses	This Jesus I proclaim to you	I speak boldly
