

Modernism:

(Culture from 1500's- late 1900's)

Postmodernism:

(Current Culture, late 1900's to present)

Modernism:

(Culture from 1500's- late 1900's)

Postmodernism:

(Current Culture, late 1900's to present)

Modernism:

(Culture from 1500's- late 1900's)

Postmodernism:

(Current Culture, late 1900's to present)

Key Aspects:

- Began with the Enlightenment
- Trust in Science and Scientific Knowledge
- Trust in human's ability to solve world problems
- Great respect for rational and logical thought

Key Aspects:

- Distrust of Science/ no belief that things are getting better and better
- No Absolutes – all is relative to personal experience
- One story cannot explain everything in universe. Rather, each has their own story
- Truth found through community and authentic relationships are most important
- Open to spirituality, distrust of religious institutions

Key Aspects:

- Began with the Enlightenment
- Trust in Science and Scientific Knowledge
- Trust in human's ability to solve world problems
- Great respect for rational and logical thought

Key Aspects:

- Distrust of Science/ no belief that things are getting better and better
- No Absolutes – all is relative to personal experience
- One story cannot explain everything in universe. Rather, each has their own story
- Truth found through community and authentic relationships are most important
- Open to spirituality, distrust of religious institutions

Key Aspects:

- Began with the Enlightenment
- Trust in Science and Scientific Knowledge
- Trust in human's ability to solve world problems
- Great respect for rational and logical thought

Key Aspects:

- Distrust of Science/ no belief that things are getting better and better
- No Absolutes – all is relative to personal experience
- One story cannot explain everything in universe. Rather, each has their own story
- Truth found through community and authentic relationships are most important
- Open to spirituality, distrust of religious institutions